

Mahatma Gandhi

As a famous charismatic leader, he organized the independence movement against British rule through peaceful forms of civil disobedience. He also protested against discrimination and oppression