

George Washington

He was the commander-in-chief of the Continental Army during the American Revolution. He presided the Constitutional Convention and was eventually elected as the first President of the United States in 1789.